Executive Summary

The following analysis is to determine which neighborhoods & property sizes are the most attractive for vacation rentals. Along with how much these listing generate on an annual basis so that the client can have better insight/understanding on which properties to invest in. Based on the data, properties located in Lower East Side, Hells Kitchen, & Harlem with 1 bedroom are the most attractive vacation rentals. The highest rated listing had produced $359,280.00 for the year, at the time the data was pulled.

Table of Contents